It is a matter of immense pleasure to forward message for your real landmark publication in print and online data industry i.e. CITYINFO YELLOW PAGES. Undoubtedly it has become an iconic publication as it renders information on all products from Ayurveda to Computer hardware and covers entire service industry too.

The new edition of Directory – CITYINFO YELLOW PAGES 2018-19, Which contains contacts details and number of all sections of society from Public utility to business establishments, I am sure will bridge the gap between information seeker and Business establishments and other govt. agencies. The book is also containing a special section to promote Tourist places along with information about all tourist circuits and travel related services like travel agents, hotels, and local Handicraft Mfrs etc., which will surely help to give a fillip to our Business and Tourism economy. I wish them all the very best for all future endeavors.

It gives me a sense of privilege and proud to forward my message and good wishes for your mammoth new edition of CITYINFO YELLOW PAGES publication, a beacon in data industry. The publication contains listing of all business establishments of Himachal and Punjab along with public utility members and information on Tourist circuits. The Unique part of the publication is that it is circulated FREE OF COST to masses and empowers consumer with lot of options to facilitate their purchase. Since the publication carry the data of whole business fraternity of this region, definitely it serves as a great reference source for both locals, outsiders and tourists.

I Wish whole team of Cityinfo the very best for this edition.

Warm Regards
